The screenshot displays the Copernic Desktop Search interface. The search bar contains the text "vacation to europe". On the left, there is a "Refine" panel with filters for Date (01/01/2012 to 17/09/2013), Filename, and System folder (Public). The main area shows "278 matching documents on computer" in a table format. The table has columns for Name, Date, File type, File size, and Folder. One document, "Summer vacation itinerary.docx", is selected and its preview is shown at the bottom. The preview text includes: "Summer vacation itinerary", "A classical itinerary, going further back in history than the Historical Western Europe itinerary by including the civilizations of Ancient Greece and The Roman Empire. Other destinations include London, Paris, Prague and Berlin.", "Day 1 - Paris, France", and "When Napoleon Bonaparte was crowned emperor of France, and France was turned into an empire after about a century of democracy, France".
